

he was only "mussed up a bit." Both he and the man that won fight were arrested.

Sanlonika.—Member of Young Turks' organization has left for Constantinople to deliver his party's ultimatum.

Believed that it is aimed against Military League.

Columbus, O.—Republican state central committee having hard time to select man as candidate for governor, to fill vacancy caused by refusal of Judge Dillon to make race.

Taft me nwant Warren G. Harding. Friends of Roosevelt are strong for U. Grant Denman.

State chairman Walter F. Brown, Roosevelt leader, intimated that naming of Denman would be followed by naming of full state ticket by Bull Moosers.

Fond du Lac, Wis.—George Lange, 40, farmer shot and wounded by Timothy Norton, in latter's saloon. Norton arrested.

Denver.—New religious organization that coolly declares itself for purpose of purifying Colorado politics has been founded.

Will be known as "liberal congregation of Denver." Rev. Hiram Vroman, Boston, is preacher. Judges Lindsey and Tully Scott are on advisory board.

Philadelphia.—Director of Public Safety Porter believes there is graft scandal in local police department and will ask for grand jury investigation.

Washington.—Scrap over young Theron Catlin's right to retain seat from 11th Missouri congressional district began in earnest today when minority report of committee on elections, sustaining his election, was read.

Catlin was recently ousted and seat given to Patrick Gill, his Democratic opponent.

It was claimed that he had spent too much money to gain seat.

Laona, Wis.—Dozen revenue agents are on trail of moonshiners who are said to be operating in this vicinity.

Waukesha, Wis.—Eugene W. Chafin was formally notified this afternoon that he had been nominated as Prohibitionist candidate for president.

Rev. Dr. Charles S. Mead, New York, delivered notification address.

Oyster Bay.—Roosevelt freely admitted that several planks of Progressive party were taken from Democrats. Also he said he solved negro problem.

Colonel received telegram from crew of battleship Oregon announcing their loyalty to him.

Hutchinson, Kan.—Posse is searching for maniac believed to be Oscar Dudley, 35, who kidnapped Mrs. Thomas Rollins, wife of wealthy farmer, threw her into buggy and drove across country. Woman was later found in corn field.

St. Louis.—Att'y Gen. Major appears to have defeated W. S. Cowherd for Democratic nomination for governor.

Honolulu.—Hawaiian Inter-island Shipmasters' Ass'n strike settled today. Men's demands were granted except that their